

BRITISH AUTOMOBILE RACING CLUB YORKSHIRE CENTRE GREENWOOD CUP MEETING

Harewood Hillclimb Championship sponsored by Richard Alexander Volkswagen

FINAL RESULTS 16th SEPTEMBER 2006

Blackmore does it again!

Harrogate man James Blackmore made it three fastest times of the day in a row in his 1600cc OMS race car at Harewood Speed Hillclimb on Saturday to secure the Greenwood Cup. With a time of 53.82 Blackmore was just a tenth of a second clear of Boroughbridge driver Jon Waggitt in his 3.5 litre F1 powered Gould race car. Ladies hill record holder Sandra Tomlin from Llantrisant was a further second behind and third fastest overall in her 4.0 litre Pilbeam.

Gary Waite in his MG 1380cc Midget took three quarters of a second off the MG group 2 & 3 cars class record, whilst Dave Sykes was within three tenths of his own class record in the Peugeot 205 GTi.

In some of the other classes there were close tussles. Only one hundredths of a second separated Ilkley's Phil Short in his Mini Cooper S from Leeds driver Paul Nutter's Ford Escort. In the Ferrari class two tenths separated Nick Frosts 348 GTC from Nick Taylor's similar car. Three tenths separated Stainburn's Mark Hemmingway in his Force race car from Nottingham's Dave Banner, who had an uncharacteristic visit to the gravel trap on one of his runs in his effort to beat Hemmingway. Behind James Blackmore only half a second separated the next five drivers in the under 1600cc race car class, with the new Harewood Ladies Champion Sarah Cordingley securing second place.
