

BRITISH AUTOMOBILE RACING CLUB YORKSHIRE CENTRE MSA CHAMPIONSHIP MEETING

Harewood Hillclimb Championship sponsored by The Cubicle Centre

FINAL RESULTS 13th MAY 2007

Rain held off until the second competitive run at Sunday's British Hillclimb Championship meeting at Harewood Speed Hillclimb near Leeds. Scott Moran took the fastest time of the day in the first run off in his 3.5 litre Gould race car with a brilliant 49.45 second run, just a quarter of a second off his hill record set last year.

In the British Championship top 12 run offs reigning champion Martin Groves came out on top with a win and a second place. Championship leader Scott Moran took a win and a sixth spot after sliding in the wet second run off. The rain in the second run off proved a great leveller, with five of the top 12 qualifiers being from the smaller engine classes. Paul Haines produced probably the top drive of the day in the 2 litre Dallara to take third place, whilst Club chairman Tim Wilson filled the eighth place in his 1400cc OMS and Harrogate's James Blackmore took the ninth place spot in his 1600cc OMS. Ed Hollier set a new record in the 1400-2000cc sports libre class with his OMS sports car.

In the 1100-1600cc race car class only a second separated the top three, with James Blackmore on cross ply tyres being just a third of a second away from the class record. James was closely pursued by Dave Kimberley in the Force and Tim Wilson in another OMS.

The 1400-2000c road car class was as competitive as ever, with Richard Vale taking the top spot in his VW Polo just a quarter of a second away from the record, whilst James Kerr was a mere 0.14 adrift in the Peugeot 205, with reigning Harewood Champion Dave Sykes in another Peugeot just 0.03 of a second behind. David Sturdy completed the top four with his Polo only three quarters of a second off the top spot.

Mike Smith secured the class in his Ford powered Sylva Striker when he set a faster time on the first run from arch rival Bob Bellerby's Peugeot powered Striker before the rain arrived. Mike had been looking for another class win for a while and judged things well.

Another competitive class was the Formula Fords with the top four being separated by less than three quarters of a second. Frazer Graham took his Van Diemen to a win, followed by Jonathan Rhodes who wrung the neck of the older Van Diemen. Andrew Henson and Mark Moran completed the top four.
