FINAL RESULTS 7th JUNE 2008

CLASSIC & VINTAGE MEETING

Jon and Bronwen Waggitt from Boroughbridge secured first and second place at the Harewood Classic and Vintage Hillclimb in their Brabham BT30 race car on Saturday 7 June. Last year Bronwen took top spot at the event. This year Jon was the only driver to achieve a sub 60 second run at the UK's longest hillclimb. Mirfield's Andrew Thorpe completed the top three in another Brabham after significant work on the gearbox limited his track time.

The meeting was host to a wide variety of cars from days gone by, including Edwardian cars, pre and post war cars built up until 1972. Cars ranged from the diminutive 747cc Austin Sevens to the monster 12 litre Amilcar of Robin Baker. Nearly half of the class records set at last year's inaugural event were broken on Saturday.

The next meeting at Harewood will include two rounds of the Nicholson McLaren British Championship on July 5 and 6, where the UK's top Hillclimb drivers will tackle the 1448 meter long tarmac track. Further details can be found at www.harewoodhill.co.uk.
