

British Automobile Racing Club
Yorkshire Centre

The Montague Burton Trophy Hillclimb was abandoned part way through the first timed run due to the structural damage caused to a building adjacent to the course. The extent of this damage coupled with the danger of imminent collapse was such that it was deemed unsafe to continue the event.